

Winter Programs 2020 Department of Community Conservation

We invite residents and friends to attend our upcoming Naturalist talks and Winter Wildlife Film Series sponsored through the Department of Community Conservation, Town of North Beach, MD.

FILM SERIES

The Gruffalo's Child, Stickman Saturday January 4 at 1:00-2:15 pm North Beach Town Hall. Family friendly animated films are delightful winter shorts. Hot cocoa, hot cider and treats will be served for all to enjoy. Please come out!

Wonder of the Snowy Owl Saturday February 8 at 1:00-2:15 pm. North Beach Town Hall. This PBS NATURE presentation has breathtaking photography and great insights into the life of these Arctic owls.

Naturalist Talks at the Senior Center

Join our Director of Eco-Tourism, Lisa Bierer-Garrett for these fun and fascinating nature presentations held at the North Beach Senior Center meeting room, monthly on Wednesdays at 11am.

Jan 8 Animals in Winter, Putting on Your Winter Coat

February 12 Animal Valentines, Mates for Life

March 11 Signs of Spring

April 8 April Foolers! Natures amazing Camouflage

For more information about the Senior Center, contact L. Roberts at NB Senior Center at 410 257 2549

For information or to register for any Department of Community Conservation programs

Contact Lgarrett@northbeachmd.org or call (301) 855-6681 ext 105

Subscribe to Town News at www.northbeachmd.org