

Butterfly Ridge

Butterfly Conservation Center

Butterfly Conservation Guest Lecture “If You Plant It, They Will Come”

Sponsored by NBHGC & North Beach Nature Center

Thursday, October 19, 2023, from 7 to 8:30 pm
at North Beach Town Hall, 8916 Chesapeake Avenue

Special guest speaker, Chris Kline, will talk about the amazing conservation work at Butterfly Ridge Farm in Ohio. In this engaging program, he will discuss creating meadow habitats, studying moths at night and pollinators by day. This presentation is a must for curious gardeners and Master Naturalists!

Signed copies of Mr. Kline’s book, “If You Plant It, They Will Come: A Butterfly Habitat Creation Success Story”, will be available. Learn more about his work at <https://www.butterfly-ridge.com/welcome-to-butterfly-ridge>.
