Mayor and Council Reports

- Mickey Hummel – Thanked everyone for coming out and joining us online. I attended the Burnt Oaks Meet and Greet and will attend their HOA meeting in February via ZOOM.
- Mary Healey – I attended my 1st Environmental Committee Meeting. The Environmental Committee had a very productive meeting discussion about recycling and the new Nature Center. Meeting minutes should be sent to Stacy Milor soon for the website. Also wished Lisa Garrett a Happy Birthday!

- Lauren Kabler – The Flood Committee met and discussed the “draft” of the Flood Action Plan from BayLand. The substance of the Plan was good, but a bit hard to follow, the committee will request some reorganization of the plan. The Plan should be available for the public’s review by the end of April.
- Ken Wilcox – Thanked everyone for attending the meeting. I attended the ribbon cutting for Ella’s Whimsey Clothing Boutique.
- Paul Troncone – The Town has one last component to transition to an all-cloud-based software. I also will be assisting with writing the RFP for a new camera system in Town.
- Gregg Dotson – Thanked everyone for coming out. At the MML Legislative Committee Meeting, the Committee reviewed 22 bills, supported 10, 8 – no position, and opposed four. MML is supporting Police Accountability Board and Cannabis Reform in this year’s session.
- Mayor Benton – Thanked everyone for coming out tonight.

Adjournment
